The Government of the Republic of Djibouti is pleased with the progress recorded in the current political process underway and notably the recent amendments made to the draft Constitution last Wednesday, and encourages the Iraqi people to take part in voting which will take place Saturday October 15, 2005.

The referendum, which will take place Saturday on the draft constitution, opens favorable prospects for Iraq and sets the stage for the return of stability, peace and development and this to the great benefit of the brotherly people of Iraq.
